

Project Management: Not Just for Project Managers!

Welcome to 2021 and The Project Economy, one in which people and relationships are as important as skills and knowledge. There has been an evolution in Project Management as the industry has morphed from a focus on process and knowledge to a more holistic view of organizational needs and putting people first. At the same time, there has been a shift in industry to more flexible leadership techniques that require leaders to be resilient and adaptive to changing situations. Join Lisa and Dave as they discuss the latest Project Management techniques and how you may be able to apply them within your organization to drive great results!

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the meaning of The Project Economy
